First Degree Assault

On November 4, 2023, at approximately 11:10 AM, Manchester Police responded to the Capital Auto Auction for a reported assault. Arriving officers located three individuals suffering from non-life-threatening wounds. They were all transported to a local hospital for treatment.

Through the investigation police learned that the victims and another man were arguing over belongings and it became physical. During the altercation, the three people were cut with a box cutter.

The suspect was located and identified as 25-year-old Bryon Bloomfield of Manchester. Bloomfield was arrested and charged with 3 counts of First Degree Assault. It was also determined that Bloomfield was a convicted felon, and was subsequently charged with Felon in Possession of a Deadly Weapon.
